THE THEATERS

Three more big houses greeted the popular Billy Osman at the Odeon theater yesterday in his new play, entitled the "Tale of Zu Zu," which was the biggest hit of the week, as it is a laugh from start to finish. The manager has decided to keep the Billy Osman Company the remainder of the week, as it does not know where it can find another company as clever. There will be an entire change again Friday matinee and night, and Billy Osman says it is the best and funniest play he has got.

Special programs of moving pictures will be presented at the popular Bijou theater, the rest of this week, the first starting today. "A Doll for the Baby" is a Vitaphone drama featuring Maxine Elliott, Anna Schaefer and George Stanley. "Two Men of the Desert," (Biograph) is strongly presented by Blanche Sweet, Henry Wallace and a cast of stars. Friday will be presented "The Mystery of West Sedgwick," a two part Edison drama adapted from "The Gold Bag," by Carolyn Wells; also Pathe's latest weekly, containing ten important and interesting events.

It is a rare enough thing nowadays to find a play which has received the universal endorsement of dramatic critics everywhere. It is unprecedented to hear of a play that has received not only the endorsement of the men whose business it is to consider a play from a technical viewpoint, but from the prominent laymen who judge a play only by the personal appeal which it makes to them. "Within the Law," by Bayard Veiller, which will be presented tonight at the Robinson Grand, has been commended publicly by such eminent thinkers as Woodrow Wilson, Theodore Roosevelt, Dr. C. H. Parkhurst, the Bishop of Wyoming, Mrs. O. H. P. Belmont, Mrs. Harriot Stanton Blatch. It has just concluded a run of more than a year at the Eltinge theater, New York City. A large audience is expected for tonight's performance.

Every person of the large assemblage that attended Cohen and Harris's successful comedy drama, "Broadway Jones," last night at the Robinson Grand will gladly corroborate the advance statement made by Reuben Robinson, managing director of the house, that it is one of the very best plays out of New York City this year; and the advance press notices that it is a "whirlwind of laughter" throughout. The play, itself is lively, full of genuine wit and as clear as a comedy could be. It is nicely staged and a splendid cast presents it with superior ability. Those who had seen George M. Cullen in the leading role last seen in his theater in New York City say that Thomas V. Emory, who took that part in the production here, is as good a substitute for him as any good actor could be expected to be. Curtis Benton as Robert Wallace, Jones's friend, makes an especially strong character.

A successful melodramatic play, "Billy the Kid," is to be presented in afternoon and night performances Saturday at the Robinson Grand. Joseph Santley and Walter Woods are the authors and while the story they have told is said to have been founded upon some of the incidents in the life of the famous and notorious bandit, for the purposes of the play, they have made their leading character a young man who is not wholly bad, and who, before the final curtain regrets his evil ways. The love interest in the play is said to be particularly strong and the comedy scenes, of which there are plenty, particularly delightful. The entire action takes place in the great southwest, west of the Pecos which thirty-five years ago was terrorized by William Bonney under the sobriquet of "Billy the Kid."

Millions who have read and loved "Little Women" have dreamed the transplanting of the gentle characters from Louisa M. Alcott's book to the glare of the footlights but they have been splendidly disappointed by William A. Brady. When the play comes to the Robinson Grand October 1 local playgoers will see Meg, Beth, Jo, Amy, and the other characters in the same purity and gentleness that has hallowed them in so many memories.

TO ORGANIZE TRAILERS.

A special meeting of the local Order of Moose will be held in its hall at 8 o'clock tonight. The meeting is for the purpose of organizing a local lodge of the Trailers. All members of the local Moose lodge are urged to be in attendance. Following the business session, light refreshments will be served.

Is Distanced in 2:18 Pace at the Parkersburg Fair Races.

PARKERSBURG, Sept. 25.—Wednesday was another day with smiling skies and big crowds at the sixth annual fair now going on in this city. There was an immense second-day crowd present and the sport was fine. The racing sensation of the day was the sudden reversal of form by Harry Porter, which took the last race at Fairmont last week. On the strength of that performance Harry was made a hot favorite and carried a barrel of money. There was deep disappointment when the "good thing" failed to get inside the flag. Following are the summaries:

Can't Help But Admire Babies

Every Woman Casts Loving Glance at the Nestling Cuddled in its Bonnet.

A woman's heart naturally responds to the sweetest of a pretty child, and more so to-day than ever before since the advent of Mother's Friend.

This is a most wonderful external help to the muscles and tendons. It penetrates the tissues, makes them pliant to readily yield to nature's demand for expansion, so there is no longer a period of pain, discomfort, straining, nausea or other symptoms so often distressing during the anxious weeks of expectancy.

Mother's Friend prepares the system for the coming event, and its use brings comfort, rest and repose during the term. This since it thus liberates a splendid growing system of nerves and digestive function. And particularly to young mothers is this famous remedy of inestimable value. It enables her to preserve her health and strength, and she remains a pretty mother by having avoided all the suffering and danger that would otherwise accompany such an occasion. Mother's Friend thoroughly lubricates every nerve, tendon and muscle involved and is a sure preventive for caking of the breasts.

You will find this splendid remedy on sale at all drug stores at $1.00 a bottle, and is highly recommended for the purpose. Write Broadfield Regulator Co., 134 Lamar Bldg., Atlanta, Ga., and they will mail you free a very instructive book for expectant mothers.

Avoid Sedative Cough Medicines.

If you want to contribute directly to the occurrence of capillary bronchitis and pneumonia, use cough medicines that contain codine, morphine, heroin and other sedatives when you have a cough or cold. An expectorant like Chamberlain's Cough Remedy is what is needed. It cleans out the culture beds or breeding places for the germs of pneumonia and other germ diseases. That is why pneumonia never results from a cold when Chamberlain's Cough Remedy is used. It has a world wide reputation for its cures. It contains no morphine or other sedative. For sale by all dealers.—Advertisement.

CHILDLESS WOMEN

These women, once childless, now happy and physically well with healthy children will tell how Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound made all this possible. Here are the names and correct addresses—write them if you want to, and learn for yourself. They are only a few out of many thousands.

NEAR DEATH BY SMOTHERING

But Husband, Aid of Cardui, Effects Her Deliverance.

Draper, N. C.—Mrs. Helen Dalton, of this place, says: "I suffered for years, with pains in my left side, and would often almost smother to death. Medicines patched me up for awhile but then I would get worse again. Finally, my husband decided he wanted me to try Cardui, the woman's tonic, so he bought me a bottle and I began using it. It did me more good than all the medicines I had taken."

I have induced many of my friends to try Cardui, and they all say they have been benefited by its use. There never has been, and never will be, a medicine to compare with Cardui. I believe it is a good medicine for all womanly troubles."

For over 50 years, Cardui has been relieving woman's sufferings and building weak women up to health and strength.

If you are a woman, give it a fair trial. It should surely help you, as it has a million others.

Get a bottle of Cardui to-day.
